ACTOR CONTRACT

If I am cast in the show, I agree to abide by all the rules and regulations of ACT. I understand that being in a play is a privilege and that a show is a group effort. Each person is equally responsible for the success of the show.

- I will not engage in bullying, dangerous, or inappropriate behavior. Zero tolerance. No warning will be given if this rule is violated. Immediate dismissal from the show.
- I understand that after three behavior warnings, I will be asked to leave the production.
- I will not raise my voice in the theatre or be disrespectful to the cast or crew.
- I will be quiet backstage.
- I will respect the theatre building, the props, the set, and the costumes.
- I understand that as a cast member it is my responsibility to help take care of any props/costumes that I utilize.
- I will not eat or drink (except water) in the auditorium or dressing rooms.
- I will be on time for rehearsals.
- I will not miss a rehearsal without notifying the director, producer, or stage manager.
- I will learn my lines and blocking on time.
- I understand that if I have too many unexcused absences I will be replaced.
- I will NOT miss a performance except under the most serious circumstances.

PHOTO RELEASE:

I (parent if under 18) _____, understand that any photos taken during rehearsals for this show will be used to publicize the production of this show and will be sent to newspapers, magazines, and published on the internet via our website and social networking pages. I give my permission for my photos (or my child's) to be used for this purpose. Photos may also be taken during auditions for the sole purpose of recollection of faces with names during the casting process.

By signing this contract and photo release, I understand all the rules and will abide by them. I understand that if I receive more than three warnings I may be replaced by another actor.
